The angel Gabriel appeared to Zechariah in the temple, announcing that his wife Elizabeth would bear a son, John.

Mary visited Elizabeth, and the baby in Elizabeth's womb leaped for joy. Elizabeth praised Mary for her faith.

Zechariah doubted the angel's message, and as a result, he was unable to speak until the prophecy was fulfilled.

The angel Gabriel visited Mary, telling her she would conceive and give birth to Jesus, the Son of God..

John the Baptist was born, and Zechariah's voice was restored. He praised God with a song of prophecy.

Elizabeth, who was barren, became pregnant in her old age, just as the angel had said.
